

I feel I pay for my service, I should be able to listen to what interests me. The FCC has already put thier laws on public radio, leave XM radio alone. I chose to pay for satellite radio so I have a choice to hear what I want to hear. I commute daily to work and I need to hear the traffic and weather on a continous basis. Public radio does not offer around the clock weather and traffic.

Cheryl Parry